On June 8, 2016, the Clerk issued an order advising the parties that the order on appeal did not appear to be final or appealable and asked the parties to filed responses addressing this Court's jurisdiction. The parties, including Appellants, filed responses. Appellants' response states that the order on appeal is not final and the appeal is premature. Appellants' response is construed as motion to voluntarily dismiss the appeal. See Fed. R. App. P. 42(b). So construed, the motion is granted and the appeal is dismissed.
